Dennis Pergram to Speak to the Delaware Area Chamber of Commerce

Dennis Pergram, who gave a presentation to the Delaware Area Chamber of Commerce on June 14, 2011 on the topics of performance appraisals and discipline, has been asked by the Chamber to give another presentation. On September 13, 2011, he will be giving a presentation on employment handbooks and employer policies.

Jason D. Seabury Joins Firm as "Of Counsel"

We are pleased to announce that Jason D. Seabury has joined the firm as "of counsel." Jason has maintained a solo practice in Westerville for the last four years, after spending the first nine years of practice primarily in a large firm setting. In his 13 years of practice, Jason has focused almost entirely on estate planning, business succession planning, guardianships, and the administration of probate and non-probate estates and trusts. Prior to his admission to practice in 1998, he was a full-time probate paralegal for three years. Jason earned his B.A. degree from Westminster College in 1993 and his J.D. degree from Capital University Law School in 1998. He is a member of the Columbus and Ohio State Bar Associations.

Firm is Presenting Sponsor of Committee to Save Senior Services Fundraiser

The firm is proud to once again be the presenting sponsor of the Committee to Save Senior Services fundraiser on Thursday, September 8, 2011 from 5:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Brookshire Banquet Facility, 405 Greif Parkway just south of Delaware off U.S. 23. This year's event will again feature a Buckeye theme. There will be live and silent auctions, food, wine, beer, and non-alcoholic drinks, and live entertainment, plus games with fabulous prizes. Tickets to the wine tasting are $25 per person if purchased by August 31, 2011 ($30 after August 31, 2011) and may be purchased in person or by mail at the Council for Older Adults, 800 Cheshire Road, Delaware. Tickets may also be purchased at the door.
