Schools participating were Delaware Hayes, Big Walnut, Buckeye Valley, Village Academy, Westerville North, Whetstone, Dublin Jerome and West Liberty-Salem.

KENDRA WECKER NAMED AS THE FIRST FEMALE CHIEF OF ODNR DIVISION OF WILDLIFE

In Kendra's 25 years of experience working for the Division, she has advised numerous ODNR Wildlife Division chiefs and senior staff on legislative issues for all aspects of hunting, fishing, trapping and shooting sports. Not only has she worked on large projects, including commercial fishing regulation, she was also instrumental in the proposing of the legislation for the popular cardinal and bald eagle license plates and the creation of the Ohio Biodiversity Conservation Partnership and the popular Ohio Diversity Conference.
